

Max Gensburg, of Indianapolis, was the guest of Ben Sarason.

Mrs. J. H. Wynn has returned with her children from a visit to Iuka.

Paul Bert, editor of the Oxford Globe, was a visitor to the city Tuesday.

Julius Lesser, of Duncan, was a Greenville visitor this week.

John F. Curry came home recently after an absence of several weeks.

John H. Sykes, of Hamburg Ark., went Tuesday in this city.

Mr. Louis Witkowski, of Denver, called his friends here a visit this week.

Igne Hyner, of Issaquena Co., was the guest of Greenville friends recently.

Miss Agnes North has returned from Yocco City where she spent the summer.

W. L. Nugent, of Jackson, paid his Greenville friends a visit during the week.

An attractive little son has entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison.

Miss Alice Nelson arrived on Tuesday and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. N. C. Skinner.

Miss Yeba Gist accompanied her sister, Mrs. J. W. Bell, on her return home last week.

Henry J. Ireys has returned from a pleasant trip to Kentucky and Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henshaw returned last week after having spent the summer in the North.

Mrs. J. D. Smith and the Misses Smith are at home after a pleasant visit in Iuka.

W. C. McClure, of Memphis, was the guest of his brother, Mr. W. J. McClure early in the week.

Miss Belle McMath of the Southern part of Washington Co., is the guest of Mrs. W. H. Johnson.

Mr. Albert Matthews, of New Castle, Ky., arrived last week and will spend the winter in Greenville.

MRS. SAMUEL E. WILSON.

Messes Harry and Sam Levy, of Memphis, were guests of Max Gensberger during the holidays.

E. G. Love, assistant superintendent of the public schools, has returned from Tennessee where he spent the summer.

Miss Maud Bryan arrived on Sunday from her home near Lake Washington to resume her position in the city school.

Mrs. John Nut passed through here recently en route to her home in Leota, after having spent the summer in Georgetown, Ky.

Cliff Hood has returned to "Magenta," his plantation home, after a pleasant visit to Kentucky.

We regret to learn that Miss Nannie Nelson is quite ill with typhoid fever in Roanoke, Va.

Mrs. Telford was the guest of Mrs. Saddle Ferguson at Wilczinski a few days this week.

Mrs. T. H. Hood has returned with her small sons from a visit to relatives in Denver, Colorado.

Rev. and Mrs. Stevenson Archer have returned from Texas, accompanied by Dr. Finlay Archer.

Mrs. Steve Archer, Jr., is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. C. B. Richardson, near Lake Providence, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Lloyd are the parents of a fine son, who is the namesake of his grandfather, Joseph Skinner.

The marriage has been announced of Miss Lillian Elizabeth Mitchell, to Mr. Edward G. McLaughlin, at Covington, Ky., on Wednesday, September 22.

Mr. McLaughlin, who has charge of the Western-Union Telegraph office in Greenville, has been a resident of this city about a year, during which time he has made many friends, who will be pleased to welcome him and his wife upon their arrival this afternoon.

The following is the list of names of those who took the public school examination on September 21 and 22:

Misses Annie Adams, of Stoneville; Edna Rousseau, of Burdette; Lula Caswell, of Canton; Hattie Bess, Nita Johnson and Clara Wiggins, of Leland; Beatrice Fulwiler, Allie Dunn, Nedie Griffin, Ludie Baugh, Daisy Crowl and Mrs. Mattie Dancy, of Greenville, and J. M. Briant, of Hollandale.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clay Terrell to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elvira Greenwood to Dr. Thomas Caethings Baird, of Baird, on the afternoon of Thursday the fourth of October at two o'clock at Quincey Miss., Dr. Baird is closely identified with this city and has many friends here.

Master Andre Worthington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Worthington, of Leota, was christened in the Catholic Church on Sunday by Rev. Father Kostenbroek. The sponsors were Miss Caroline Adams, of New Orleans, and Mr. Joel Johnson. While in the city Mrs. Worthington and Miss Adams were guests of Mrs. Harvey Miller.

Miss May L. Seay has returned to take charge of her classes in music, after having spent the summer in Memphis studying with a professor from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. Miss Seay will open her studio on the first of October in the residence of Mrs. Alkin on Alexander street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fredrichsen and daughter, Mrs. Julius Seeger came home recently from New York, where Mr. Fredrichsen and Mrs. Seeger went to meet Mrs. Fredrichsen on her return from Germany.

Mrs. Harry Robinson and children, of Lake Village, Ark., are guests of Mrs. S. R. Dunn, and the friends of Mrs. Robinson in this city are sorry to learn that she has been ill with fever for the past fortnight.

Henry T. Ireys, Jr., came home early in the week after a two months' absence spent in Frankfort, Ky., where Mrs. Ireys and Master Henry T. the third, will remain until cool weather.

M. A. Bergman, W. McD. Meggett, A. G. Yerger, and Louis Bergman were entertained on last Sunday at a dining by Prof. E. E. Bass, ably assisted by his brother, Lawrence.

Mrs. Malvina Yerger and little grand daughter, Miss Kathleen Gilbert, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yerger, left recently for their home in Jackson.

Mrs. A. W. Benoit and daughters, little Misses Celest and Adele, who have been visiting friends and relatives in this city, have returned to their home in Memphis.

Miss Lillie May Young, the bright daughter of Dr. J. L. Young, left recently for Meridian, where she will attend the East Mississippi Female College.

Quite a number of the members of the younger social circle enjoyed a delightful dance given by the young men at the court house on Thursday evening.

T. C. McRee has been mingling with his many friends the first part of the week. He is employed by W. C. Craig & Co., as country buyer.

J. J. Richardson, of Hollandale, who has recently returned from a pleasant visit to Chautauque, paid his friends here a visit during the week.

Miss Linnie Johnson returned on Thursday from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Isaac Worthington, near San Antonio, Texas.

S. R. Dunn has moved with his family into the suburban residence, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison.

Mrs. J. W. Bell and small son have returned home after having spent the summer in Louisville and New Castle, Kentucky.

Miss Pearl Fisher, of Lake Providence, La., will be the guest of her Aunt Mrs. Blum, and attend the city school here this winter.

Mrs. W. E. Hunt returned yesterday with her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, from a two months visit to relatives in Frankfort Ky.

Miss Roena Barry has returned from her home in Oxford where she spent several weeks of her summer vacation.

Mrs. J. A. McAlpin, of Hollandale, will take charge of the Pollock house on the first of October.

Mrs. St. L. Coppes and children have returned from a visit of several weeks to relatives in Vicksburg.

Mrs. W. Reed and her handsome little son, of Jackson, are the guests of Mrs. Meggett on South Shelby street.

Miss Eunice Middleton, of Oakland plantation, was the guest of Mrs. L. P. Smith on Wednesday.

Moss Landau, of Vicksburg, was with relatives in this city a few days early in the week.

Mrs. Robert Sommerville has returned with her children from Monticello Tenn.

Messrs John C. and T. Caethings Baird, of Baird, spent Monday with Greenville friends.

EAR FACTS...

are the only things we deal in. No exaggerations. No word trickery to get your dollars; nothing but good, wholesome truth. When we advertise a thing you may stake your faith on it as "bare facts"—nothing more—nothing less. We assert without fear of challenge, that the same money will buy more sterling worth of Clothing at our store than at any other place in Greenville, no matter whether it is a $5.00 Suit or a $25.00 one. This is a sweeping statement, but we will prove it at your pleasure. Our fall display of

Men's, Boys and Children's Suits

Was never better—either in point of variety or style. We emphasize the fact that our goods are not bought in the ordinary way. We select the cloths from which they are made up, especially for us. You may depend upon it, we get the best. These are Suits that will please every man—and our guarantee goes with every garment. We have reliable all-wool Suits as low as $7.50, as high as $25.00. It would be wise to hold on to your suit money until you find out what we can do for you.

...SOL BRILL,
Up-to-date Clothier and Gents Furnisher.

WE ARE RIGHT IN LINE...

WITH OUR FALL STOCK OF

School Supplies, Tablets, Papetries, Office Supplies, Late Books, Periodicals and Magazines. . . . . Prices right. We want your business

COME OR SEND YOUR ORDERS TO

...GILKEY'S BOOK STORE.

J. B. HEBRON,

GENERAL
INSURANCE AGENT.

New Opera House.

Greenville, Miss.

If You Get it Here You Know it's Right!

There isn't a questionable garment in our collection. The care we give to the selection of our Ladies' Wraps, Coat Suits and Skirts is sufficient guarantee of their excellence. We demand from the maker the best he can produce. We want our money's worth. We admit your right to demand the same. Your money back if you are not satisfied.

NELMS & BLUM.

Some Seasonable Bargains

at Stovall's Money-Saving Store.
... 317 Washington Avenue ...

Having just opened for business, and being desirous of an early acquaintance with the buying public of Greenville, we offer the following seasonable bargains in high-grade staple merchandise—comprising the every-day needs of everybody. . . . .

..Dry Goods..	...Groceries...
Notions, Ladies and Gents Furnishing Goods, Shoes, Hats and Sallors,—the latest styles and the lowest prices. A fine line of Ladies and Gents and Childrens Hosiery at prices that are surprisingly low.	We don't take orders, but will deliver to any part of the city free of charge. Our terms are strictly cash, and we handle only the purest and best that can be had at any price. Note our inducements below:
Our Calicoes are simply beautiful and at prices from 50c to 75c	Blankets Roasted Coffee, you know the quality, 17 1/2c
Dress Goods in all the latest fabrics, per yd. 50c to 1.50	Blankets Roasted Coffee in 2 lb cans, 35c
Ladies' Shirt Waists, a very pretty line, each 50c to 1.50	Golden Glory Table Syrup, in quart cans, each 12c
Crash Toweling, patterns to please everybody, per yd. 25c to 1.00	Crescent Coffee, good quality for the money, 12c
Ladies' Corsets, the standard styles, each 25c to 1.00	Sunflower Hams, the best packed, per lb. 13c
Marcella Quills, handsome and serviceable, each 75c to 1.50	Picnic Hams, nice solid quality, per lb. 9c
Comforts, the kind that are comfortable, each 1.00 to 1.50	Breakfast Bacon, the very best on the market, per lb. 14c
Towels, 24x36, good material for the 5c money, take them at 5c	Sugar, good article, fifteen pounds 1.00
Barber Towels, splendid values, per 50c dozen.	Rice, all grades, ranging in price from 5c to 7 1/2c

Any one that would like to ship us his cotton may do so and it will be sampled and weighed on arrival and we will forward check for same by return mail. If price is not satisfactory return the check within five days and we will hold cotton subject to order.

STOVALL & COMPANY.

Special Drive

AT Robinson's
Dry Goods
Store.....

Monday,
October 1st...

300 yards of beautiful Outings will be sold at 5c per yard. The best value ever offered in this city.

150 pieces of Amoskeag Outings in beautiful patterns at 72c per yard. Come and be convinced that we advertise nothing but facts.

The Growing Store of Greenville!

FREE SILVERWARE	SARASON'S	FREE SILVERWARE
Fast Black Hose 5c		Suspenders 5c
Ladies' Vests 5c		Mens Percate Shirts 25c
Linen Skirts 20c		Made Bars 50c
A Few More Children Shoes 15c		A Few More Cousin's Shoes 50c

MISSISSIPPI
STORE